SEARCHING FOR BOOKS
To search only for books in the library you can use the Advanced Search.
If you sign in to your library account you can request and renew books. Use your US username and password.
This book is taken out – you can sign in and request the book for you

This book is electronically available and you can read it online

This book is available on the shelves lower level at Shelfnumber 320.3 MAH
You can also search for a specific author – on the dropdown menu. There are a few options you can search by - select Author.

There are more than one copy in the library in various locations.